City of Lansing's River Trail detoured at the M-43/Saginaw Street bridge

COUNTY: Ingham

HIGHWAY: M-43 (Saginaw Street)

CLOSEST CITY: Lansing

START DATE: Thursday, Feb. 2, 2012

ENDING DATE: Early September 2012

PROJECT: As part of the M-43/Saginaw Street bridge replacement project over the Grand River, the city of Lansing's River Trail is now detoured at the bridge.

Work to replace the bridge is expected to begin in early March, with eastbound M-43 detoured during construction. More information on the project is available at:
www.michigan.gov/m-43saginawstreet.

DETOUR ROUTE: River Trail users are directed east on the sidewalk along Saginaw to cross at the Cedar Street intersection and then back along the Saginaw Street sidewalk to the River Trail. Once M-43 road detour is established in early March, River Trail traffic will cross M-43/Saginaw Street on the west side of Center Street.

A detour for the River Trail, near M-43/Saginaw Street, will remain in place during construction.
